

Teachers' feedback on the syllabus and its transaction at the college

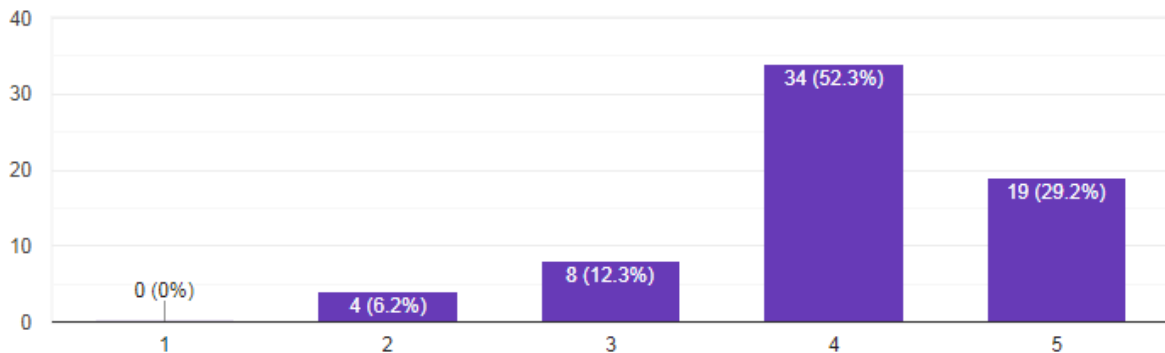

To get teachers' feedback on the syllabus and its transaction at the college for the academic year 2020-2021, Google form was created and circulated among the faculty members of 15 academic departments through e-mail/ WhatsApp. 65 responses were received in total. Feedbacks are summarised below:

P.S: In the following charts 1 corresponds to 'Least Satisfactory' and 5 corresponds to 'Highly Satisfactory'.

How updated is the syllabus?

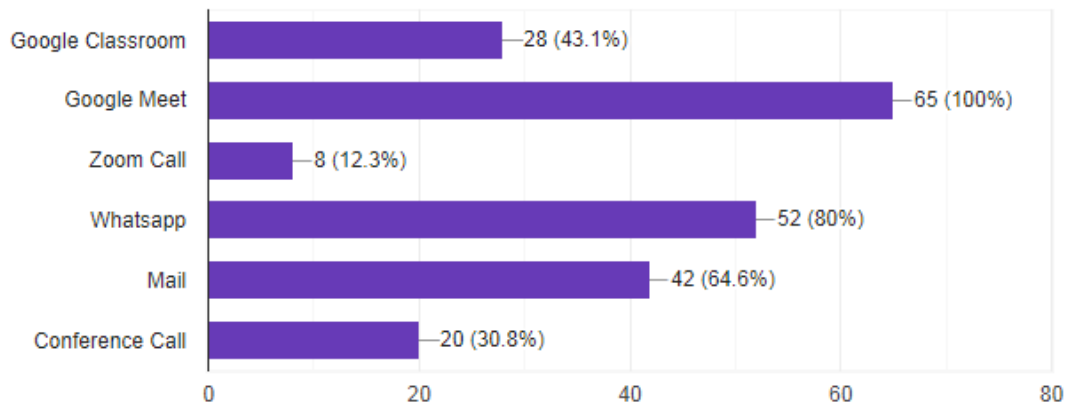

65 responses

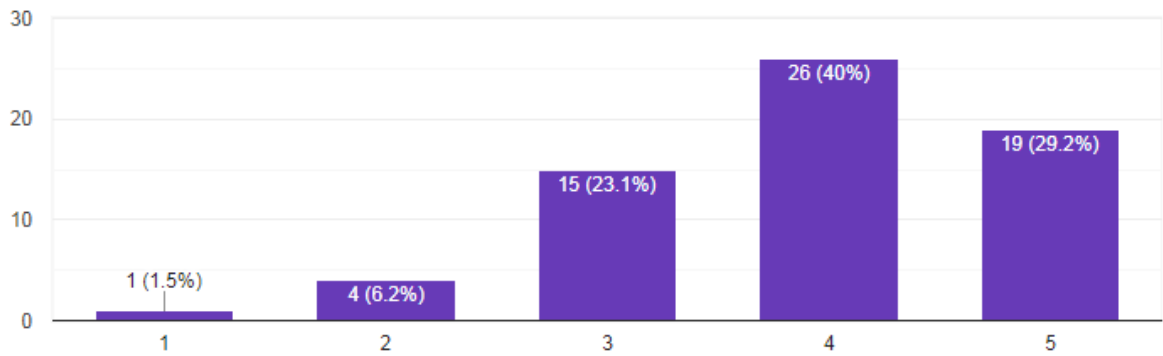

What are the different online mode of teaching that you used during the pandemic?

65 responses

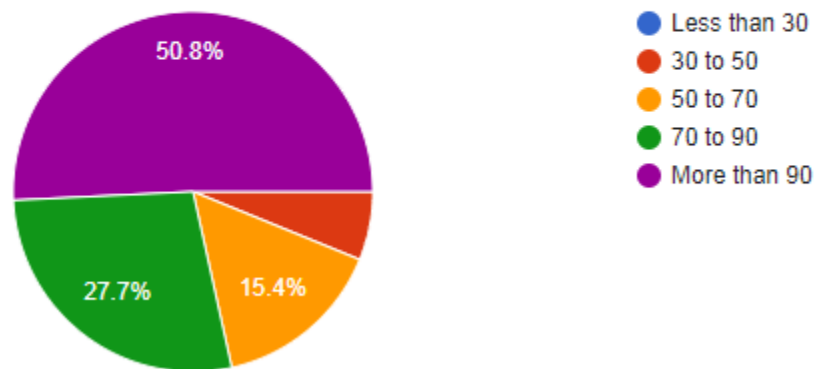

How comfortable were you with online classes?

65 responses

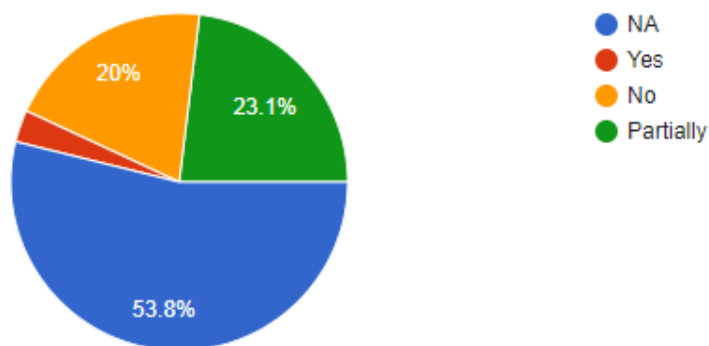

What percentage of syllabus could be completed in online mode?

65 responses

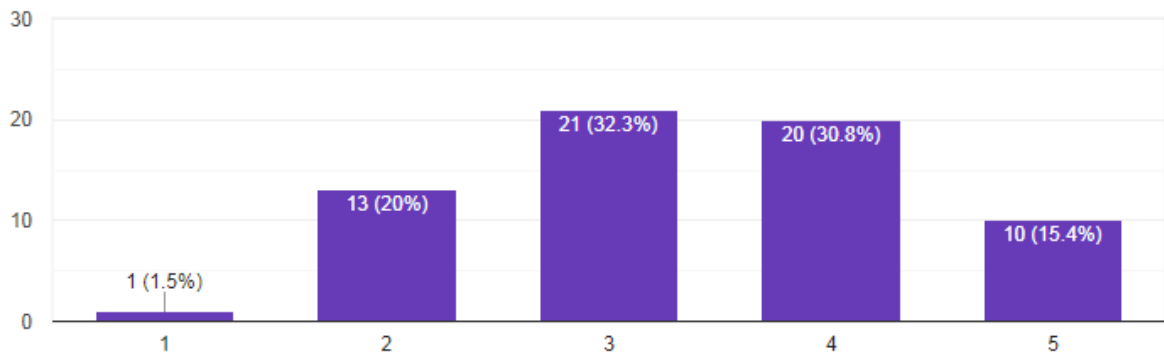

Could you take practical classes satisfactorily? (If you don't have practical courses, please choose NA)

65 responses

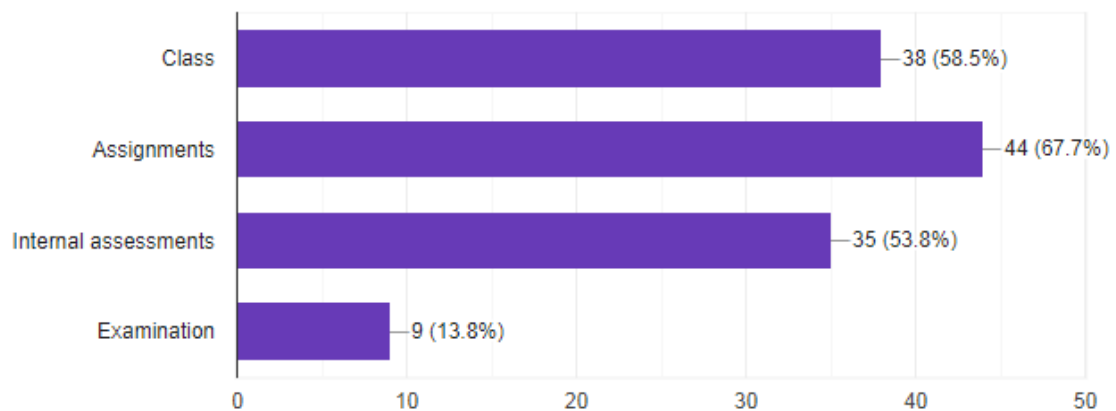

How was students' response during the online class?

65 responses

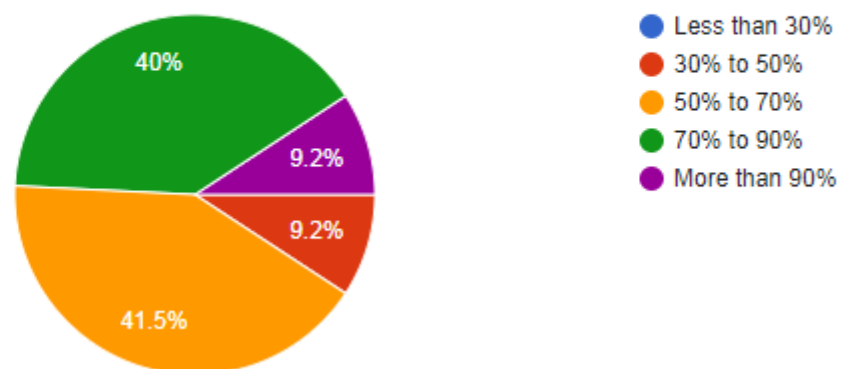

In which of the following, online mode was most useful?

65 responses

What was the average student attendance?

65 responses

If given the option, how likely is it for you to choose online class over offline class?

65 responses

